Company Profile

Background

Robust Carriers is a distributor of quality, clean petroleum products to the commercial, industrial, construction, mining and transport sectors.

The company was founded in Botswana in 1995 as a transport company, but in 2015 started its petroleum products distribution and since then, has been pursuing a buoyant strategy to position itself as one of the leading regional operators in the distribution of fuel, lubricants, chemicals and heating oils.

Behind the Robust Carriers brand stands a strong commitment to premium quality, exceptional service and high safety standards.

Robust Carriers is an associate company of the Kujo Group of Companies, which operates subsidiaries in the storage, distribution and transportation of petroleum products. Kujo Group is one of the largest independent, integrated companies in this industry in South Africa.
